

MH Emergency

Are You Prepared?

Speakers Bureau

MHAUS speakers are experts in Malignant Hyperthermia.

The most informed anesthesia care providers in the world are affiliated with MHAUS as Hotline Consultants, or as members of the MHAUS Professional Advisory Council, or as members of MHAUS Board of Directors.

MHAUS Speakers Bureau answers your questions about the basics of recognizing, diagnosing, and treating MH.

The Speakers Bureau includes:

- Speaker's presentation on MH; but can also include other topics, see request form
- MH Educational materials for up to 20 attendees
- Hands-on Dantrolene mixing demonstration
- Mock MH drill event; what to do, and duties
- Questions and answer session
- Host receives: Custom Event Posters, Alert Band & Sticker Kits, Critical Intervention Records, Dosage Chart, Hotline Stickers, and MH Crisis Poster.

MH Episodes can happen at any time. The Malignant Hyperthermia Association of the United States will always be ready to provide assistance when you need it. But the best way to protect your patients, and your facility, is to be prepared before it's too late.

Find out what you can do right now to keep your patients, and your facility, safer from Malignant Hyperthermia emergencies.
