94	Membership dues are collected to cover expenses associated with providing physicians with information on consenting patients' malignant hyperthermia susceptibility: to standardize and validate malignant hyperthermia diagnostic testing; and to support epidemiologic and other investigations of malignant hyperthermia.
93a	During the current year, the organization began to market and sell ID tags and bracelets that will serve to identify anyone that is susceptible to malignant hyperthermia. This service is part of their exempt purpose which is to educate the public and reduce the morbidity rate of the syndrome.
93b	The organization holds a dinner for supporters of the organization. The event itself does not generate much income, however, it does enlighten many to the cause of the organization and stimulate new connections in the medical field.
99	Unrealized gain on domestic equities held at year end.
100	Loss on disposal of assets during the year. No assets were sold, only disposed.
