Organization's Primary Exempt Purpose

The Malignant Hyperthermia Association of the United States, Inc. (MHAUS or the Organization) is a not-for-profit corporation that was formed for the purpose of increasing the medical professions and the general public's awareness and understanding of the syndrome, malignant hyperthermia (MH). MHAUS is dedicated to reducing the morbidity and mortality of MH by improving medical care related to MH, providing support information for patients and improving the scientific understanding and research related to MH. It performs these objectives by publishing newsletters and articles, hosting educational seminars, attending appropriate professional and public seminars to disseminate information about the syndrome and performing such other functions as required to increase the knowledge of the syndrome.

Form 990, Part VIII
Relationship of Activities to the Accomplishment of Exempt Purposes

Line #	Explanation of Activities
94	Membership dues are collected to cover expenses associated with providing physicians with information on consenting patients' malignant hyperthermia susceptibility: to standardize and validate malignant hyperthermia diagnostic testing; and to support epidemiologic and other investigations of malignant hyperthermia.
93a	During the current year, the organization began to market and sell ID tags and bracelets that will serve to identify anyone that is susceptible to malignant hyperthermia. This service is part of their exempt purpose which is to educate the public and reduce the morbidity rate of the syndrome.
93b	The organization holds a dinner for supporters of the organization. The event itself does not generate much income, however, it does enlighten many to the cause of the organization and stimulate new connections in the medical field.
99	Unrealized gain on domestic equities held at year end.
100	Loss on disposal of assets during the year. No assets were sold, only disposed.
